

What to wear for the wedding

The wedding day is certainly a beautiful and unique time. Each couple would like to see these moments is revealed in the form of wonderful memories for the entire period of the marriage.

The greatest importance during the preparations for the wedding of course, is paid to the appearance of a young virgin. This is her wedding dress and the whole creation is in the foreground. However, the bridegroom, as the most important man on the day of the ceremony, it must look equally elegant. The choice of clothing for this occasion is not a matter blah, because you can very easily make a mistake or run into excessive extravagance. Men usually choose a classic suit. Here we propose different alternatives to the typical male of that wedding dress.

Dress - "king" of male wardrobes

Actually, has not changed since the end of the eighteenth century, when it appeared as a court dress. wore it, and later was promoted to the salons. Today is worn almost exclusively by the most solemn occasions, such as a wedding or grand ball. Dress, custom sewn with black cloth, consists of three parts: the navy, trousers and vests.

Large, sharp jackets lined flaps are black, shiny silk satin. Are the characteristic half-length, compared with the tail. Pants do not have any but on the outer seams are double silk. It is assumed braces, because they will lay the trousers are blameless.

For the dress wears a special shirt with a very rigid and chest CUFFS. Standing collar with horns cover (and do!) White bead. Dress is complemented by a white jacket, black socks with silk or fine cotton shoes, pumps in the same color, black or gray coat, white scarf, gloves and the cylinder.

When you are choosing the so-called English dress, you can sign up jacket in a color to black trousers and vest, and other additives as in the classical style. It added that the dress very figure, while adding its refinement.

Not only for diplomats

Refined the bridegroom to the wedding can be set up by smoking, clothing commonly associated with diplomats and dignitaries. Overall, it is deemed to be a more elegant dress of the suit, but not as formal as the dress. Sewn with a thin black material. Flap jackets are shape and are lined silk satin on the outside seams of trousers are single, black, silk I.

Smoking requires a white shirt with semi-rigid chest and CUFFS on TIEPINS and flange on stiffened with horns. Establishment of a shirt of another color to the tie is far from inappropriate. Assuming smoking, you should pay particular attention to the selection of additives. Spot in this set should be black (white is reserved for waiters). Standard dress is a black belt, also known as Spanish. There may be no exception to change the color of the belt or on the silver claret. The key, however, is that the spot was a color belt. Shoes should be classic, black and may be pumps. Remember, it does not fit to tie a tie.

American style

Wedding dresses widespread in Anglo-Saxon countries, mainly in the USA is the jacket with rounded fields extend up to the knees, usually sewn of black cloth. Suppose you go young, witnesses, and even engaged fathers.

For bears the trousers, gray vest, white shirt with collar, tie, or dashing, clipped scarf, plain black shoes (not pumps), black or dark gray socks. An important addition is a thin, handkerchief in the pouch. Jacket is interesting and the most appropriate wedding dresses.

Immortal classics and a pinch of avant-garde

The bridegroom, who chooses to be at the wedding in a conventional suit, you may select a dress from the collection of classical and composed of dark suits in the color of the Marine j, fastened to three or four buttons. Marine, up the thigh and the sleeves even in the hands of the learned wrist. It is by extending a bit of shirt cuff. Trousers leg should be slightly on the footwear. Trends in fashion and men's wedding suits, while not changing as rapidly as is the case for women's fashion, but every year there are new products, useful materials and additives. Avant-garde, modern men's clothes are made up of colored vests, jackets and long silk pin instead. Peak combined with avant-garde classics is dignified frock coat - a bit forgotten element of wedding attire. Frock coat may be black, beige or light gray. An important issue is the selection of an appropriate life - and at the same time tasty whole - and the matching vest, preferably in the same color and pattern, pin, whether . In this unique attempt on a good bit of courage and imagination to look good . Remember that in a very good tone is good suit wedding dress and accessories to a young virgin to a pair of newlyweds were also in terms of clothing styles. We wish the young men a future successful exploration perfect dress!
