

Engagement - the new customs

Engagement - show willingness to be together and in the future of marriage usually made by a man - woman. In western culture generally confirmed this desire is a ring ceremony. Woman taking ring engagement declares acceptance, rejection is a refusal. Engagement period begins, which lasts until the conclusion of marriage.

According to the tradition of marriage must be concluded within one year from the date of engagement, otherwise the engagement shall be deemed void.

For two Today the engagement ceremony of two people. More and more often take place without the engagement of additional people. Only men and women. Departs from the custom when the engagement ceremony was the whole family.

Engagement ring is a symbol of the man who handed the woman. Adoption means the acceptance of a ring on its side. The difficulty with the matching ring can be quite large, therefore, recommend a third party eg friend to try to find out what the size of our beloved bears.

Man should not only give your beloved a ring and put it on the third finger right hand. Then it should tighten the hand as a sign of a strong and lasting relationship.

Family Engagement can take place also in other ways. In the company of a young parent you should genuflect before my fiancée and ask it to hand in the manner described above. Then, should ask for consent to parents bride of the marriage of their daughter.
